PRESIDENTS THREADS THAT BIND

Our guild has been blessed with awesome national educators. Marci Baker has divulged a wealth of tips to aid in advancing your quilting education. Those who were not able to attend classes and/or the meeting really missed out. In the future, the presenter will be at the beginning of the meeting and before break to ensure that the information presented can be absorbed and maintained for future use. The business meeting will be held after the break.

The 2019 Opportunity Quilt is absolutely beautiful. The proud winner will receive a quilt appraised at $1300. Tickets are available NOW as well as requesting showing of the quilt for ticket sales. For quilt showings to sell OPPORTUNITY Quilt tickets, please phone or text Jan Baethke at her number listed in Guild contacts. She is ready and willing to assist you in handling your request.

Another month has come and gone with retreat time at hand. If you have not had the opportunity to attend a retreat – save your coins and reserve retreat dates. You will never regret the experience. As a newbie at the guild and president position, I have met and made new friends from guild members at retreat. The sharing, comraderies, and welcoming are in abundance – such a pleasure. Never have reservations about your level of quilting for not attending a retreat - the diversity of levels is from one extreme to the other. Never an issue at any level, as someone is there to lend a hand. No intimidation.

Schoolhouses are a real plus to the guild. Our own members devote their time to teach old and new methods to assist any level of quilter to be the best. Thanks to all who teach.

For those who are heading to parts other than the valley, have safe travels. You will be missed but looking forward to your return next season. Those of us who are staying in the valley, getting together over the next few months will be rewarding. We are all bound together by a common thread – quilting!

See Ya!

Guild "Kick-Starts" Students' College Goals

Hey, ya'll members of the Rio Grande Valley Quilt Guild, once again we have provided two graduating high school seniors with an opportunity to fulfill their dreams of Fashion Design careers.

Rosario Garcia and Erick Vega each received a 2018 scholarship award letter for $2,000 at the March 10 Guild meeting.

Garcia, a homeschool senior at the Catholic Institute for the Arts and Academics, Edinburg, and Erick Vega, a senior at Sharyland High School also in Edinburg, were chosen from nine scholarship applicants.

The criteria for scholarship selection is based on printed Guild guidelines and state that the applicant must be a graduating high school senior and plan to attend college and major or minor in "the arts related to textiles, including fashion, designing, pattern making, study of materials, dyes, color, and other textile-related studies". Other considerations are extracurricular activities and grade point average. In the event there are no qualified high school senior applicants for the two scholarships, former scholarship students who plan to continue their studies according to the Guild guidelines may apply for consideration.

Letters were mailed in October 2017 by Evelyn Fincher, High School/College Scholarship Committee Chairman, to Rio Grande Valley high school counselors and art departments. Other members of the committee are Donna Brown, Judy Bassett, and Phyllis Kabay. The committee met following the February 27, 2018 application deadline, ranked applicants and sent their recommendations to the Executive Board members who approved the final selections.

Fincher introduced Garcia and Vega. Garcia plans to attend Texas A&M, Kingsville, and major in Fashion Design with a minor in Business.

She spoke about her sewing and quilting interests and accomplishments and showed pictures of her junior sewing class students and their work. After expressing thanks to the Guild and her family, Garcia stated, "I anticipate that with the experience I have acquired and further education I will be able to reach my dream of designing my own fashion line."

Garcia also introduced Adolfo, her father; Guadalupe, her mother, and her sister and two brothers, who also sew and quilt.

Vega plans to attend the University of Texas Rio Grande Valley, Edinburg. He expressed a desire to pursue a career in Fashion Design and Business.

"My ultimate goal is to have my own fashion brand," Vega shared. He also thanked the Guild members for providing him with the scholarship opportunity.

Fincher presented award letters to the students and explained the procedure for receipt of the award checks. A RGVQG representative will present certificates to the scholarship winners at their respective high school awards assemblies in May and June.

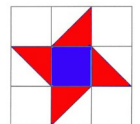

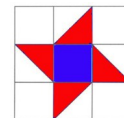

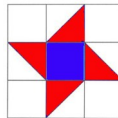

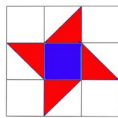

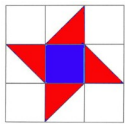

If you will pardon the incorrect grammar, "Ya'll done good".

2018 FRIENDSHIP STAR RETREAT

Monday, March 12, fifty-one fabric hungry, sew deprived ladies descended upon John Newcomb Tennis Ranch, New Braunfels, Texas for the 2018 Friendship Star Retreat. Not one attendee could enter the sewing conference center until 3pm – but they were lined up like Black Friday Sales - so anxious to get to their sew stations and set up. So at 3PM the door opened with a welcome, everyone found their own personal sewing station, set up their area AND THE SEWING BEGAN in earnest.

For three consecutive mornings - one of three area quilt shops came into our domain to demo, show new products, donated door prizes, answer questions, and/or sell quilting products to the enjoyment of the group – The Cotton Boll, Quilt Haus, and Gone Quiltin’. The retreaters many thanks to these generous vendors.

One will never go hungry as the meals are out of this world. At every breakfast and dinner, door prizes were given to attendees – each receiving more than one thanks to the generosity of many attendees, Elaine Hall (the Quilted Cat), Laural Powell (GOB Quilts), Kathe Letulle (Quilters This N That Korner) and Urban Elements of New Braunfels.

Every lady at the retreat has had at least one date with Jack. There was much discussion among the retreaters about Jack and the overwhelming consensus is everyone loves Jack. And let us not forget the Tennis Players. The youth tennis players were very much in residence and the adult tennis players had to “race all the quilters to meals” so they were sure of meals. All had a great time teasing each other.

As the 2018 Friendship Star Retreat came to an end, a special THANK YOU was given to everyone who made this retreat special and wished SAFE TRAVELS ‘til we meet again.

Karyn Heaney and Maggie Putney

Bee News

The Row Quilters Bee is an open group, and meets at the Alamo Country Club each Friday, 10 am to 2 pm in the main hall View Room to sew and share.

The Weslaco Heritage Quilting Bee has had several very busy seasons sewing the 2019 Opportunity Quilt which will be presented at the March guild meeting. Several members sewed bowl buddies for the quilt show boutique. Also three military quilt tops were completed ready to be quilted and presented in the fall. We are looking forward to the new season this fall. We are an open Bee and would welcome new members. We meet the second and fourth Tuesdays of the month at 9:30 am at the Grace Episcopal Church parish hall in Weslaco at 701 S. Missouri Avenue.

Killer Bees: An Open Bee, meets Thursdays at 9:00 am at Sunshine Country Club. We have been busy, have done 3-D folded blocks, had our challenge reveal and desert, salad luncheon...with LOTS of deserts and some very talented ladies doing the challenge...had a sew day and learned a new way to make bow tie blocks, just in time for next years challenge and to go along with the quilts from Paducah that come to Harlingen once a year. Come visit and you can be part of the fun.

The Green Bees of Green Gate Grove are winding down the winter season. We have done so many new things and returned to do some of our favorites. We continue to make quilts for veterans and quilts to donate to the colonia. Last Tuesday the quilters made 100 teddy bears to donate to a church that sends non perishables to the needy. Each basket will receive a teddy bear. Eleven of us are at retreat in New Braunfels. Plenty of sewing and a great deal of shopping. What a great week. As some of our quilting friends head to the for the summer, we wish them safe travels and a speedy return to their Texas home.

KUDO,'s to Green Bees from Green Gate... they gave a bolt of muslin and a financial gift of $85.00 to Florea Flores for use with the youth project at the Texas A & M Agri-Life Extension. Ditto for Killer Bees which donated fabric, batting and backing materials for eight quilt kits.

Honeybees Support Each Other and the Community The Honeybees Quilt Group meets Sewing Room at the Fun-N-Sun resort, San Benito. In addition to socializing, learning new quilting skis and techniques, the Honeybees support the local community. They sew pillow cases and adult bibs for distribution to local assisted living facilities and on Thursday mornings, the busy honeybees meet to sew blocks for patriotic quilts that are presented to veterans residing in the park. Twelve quilts were presented on Veterans Day. More quilts will be presented in January.

Among the many activities during December was a field trip to see the Christmas Tree display at the Harlengen Arts and Heritage Museum, sewing angel ornaments of white wool and decorated with colorful beads, and other ornaments featuring Cathedral Windows and folded ribbon designs Oh, one of their group projects was a sling bag that was the envy of those who did not participate.

QUILTERS' SCHOOLHOUSE

The Quilters' Schoolhouse classes for the next season are posted on the RGVQG web site under Schoolhouse. Thanks to Bonnie Hall you are able to register on line by clicking on Sign Up. The December class is Tiny Stars taught by Judy Blum. In January Jan Baethke will be teaching Needle Stars.

Subie Redd will teach a Transfer, Sew, and Flip technique while you make a placemat or table runner. The last Quilters' Schoolhouse class will be Mega Bow Tuck Tote taught by Patty Hoerr.

Thanks to all who have used the RGVQG web site to sign up!
