PRESIDENTS THREADS THAT BIND

MERRY CHRISTMAS AND HAPPY NEW YEAR!

What a whirlwind was the December Meeting. Not only did we have a program speaker and vendor – Tina Hilton of Turtle Hand Batiks but the surprise vendor was Dave Martelli of Martelli Notions.

Tina Hilton delighted the Guild members and guests present with an in-depth education on the making of Malaysian Batiks. Such a delightful personality that kept members focused on her subject and thoroughly enjoyed seeing the samples. Many members are now owners of Malaysian Batiks along with those who took her classes on Friday.

Dave Martelli wowed the crowd with ergonomic ways to sit while sewing, ways to actually do fabric cutting without neck and back strain, and tools with no slip grip to assist in accurate cutting plus tools to shortcut the fabric cutting process. Many members took advantage of the drastic reduction in costs. I know every minute was spent with something going on, but check the remainder of the newsletter to see what information was not presented by Committee Chairs.

A new decade is dawning and I would like to say THANKS to all those volunteers who assisted in benefitting the Guild to go forward into the future during the past two years. The quilt show is near and there are areas which need every member's assistance in making items to be sold and auctioned as well as volunteers for the show to succeed. REMEMBER – all revenue from the quilt show will pave the way for member teachers and speakers, program guests, military service quilts, and Community Service plus I could go on and on!!! Support the Instructors at the show as well as the vendors. This is your Guild! Stay Involved and Connected.

Everyone be sure to check the program classes and the schoolhouse class schedules. If you see one that interests you, please sign up so these programs will continue. If participation lessens, these programs cannot continue as these classes are for you the Guild Members and only held seasonally - November to March. All of us know something, but each class will teach you at least one new approach or remind you to pull out information from your memory banks and revisit. Ask around, everyone always learns something.

Starting off the new decade – 2020 – will be Karen Combs – an outstanding educator and artist. She shows how to make the hard EASY! Her classes will be a blast and her program will keep all enthralled. Awesome Educator.

There is a vacancy for the Historian Committee Chair. If interested, please send an email or text to president@rgvqg.com or 956-272-2377. Any member may submit a members name for this volunteer position, but please have their permission.

See Ya There! Safe Travels! ALL Members – ALWAYS Check the website for class and meeting locations.

Blessings We are all bound together by a common thread – quilting!

Kathe – President@rgvqg.com 956-272-2377

Hostess: 152 members present. 11 guests.

Newsletter – Diana Wolf: The newsletter articles are due on the 15th, Sunday.

Show and Tell

Judy Blum reminded the group to donate small/miniature quilts for the quilt show. The quilts will be voted on at the February 2020 meeting.

New Officer Installation: 1st VP-Membership, Marty Morrison installed the new officers. Kathe LeTulle, President; Laural Powell 3rd VP, Programs; Diana Wolfe, Secretary. Each read and signed a pledge to the RGVQG.

No further business, Kathe LeTulle adjourned the meeting at 12:05 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Joy Paugh, Secretary

Programs – January

Sign up for one (or both) of Karen Combs classes in January and become a Master of Illusion!

Karen encourages her students making learning fun, and she will make what looks complex easy to understand.

Thursday January 9th - "Patchwork Illusions" - Karen has developed a quick and easy rotary and piecing techniques which will allow you to make quilts with a 3-D look. Karen will show you different layout options which make the creative opportunities endless.

Friday January 10th - "Celtic Illusion" - Karen has developed a truly magical way to create pieced Celtic quilts, using two basic blocks. This is one of Karen's favorite classes because it is so easy to create amazing Celtic Quilts. Karen will share her secrets, so you can quickly and easily create unlimited pieced Celtic quilts.

Space is still available in each of these classes, you won't want to miss out!

Laural Powell, Program Chair

Small Quilts for Silent Auction

Thanks to all who gave me a small quilt for the Silent Auction at the quilt show in February. It looked like you had some fun. However my bag was NOT FULL! We are still in need of more. There is still time to finish up one of those UFOs. Turn one of those class projects into a finished piece. Good news! We vote on the one we like the most but it won't be until February. Another month! I challenge you fill the bag. Questions? Some of you have asked whether it needs a label. Does it need a sleeve? While both of those are not a requirement, it is nice to know who made them and if it is a wall hanging, it is a convenience for the buyer who might not be a sewer. Questions? Email Judy.blum19@gmail.com

TEXAS QUILTMUSEUM

History in the Making™

Dear Texas Quilt Guilds,

The Texas Quilt Museum has opened a call for entries into a special exhibit that will be hung in the Museum in 2020. "Texas Grand Masters" will focus on the work of quilters age 75 and over. You can find information and the entry form on our homepage at www.texasquiltmuseum.org.

We are also open for entries into our bird-themed exhibit, "Flying High," and you'll find information there as well.

Please pass along to your Guild members who might want to submit their work for consideration. Thank you!

Exciting new addition to our 37th Rio Grande Valley Quilt Show on South Padre Island, Feb. 15-16, 2019!

The Quilters' Walk

What is it? An opportunity to win a new, handmade Purse, Tote, Bag, or container filled with surprises.

Create and Donate! Bring to the Guild meeting to be voted on for the best of the best. Deadline, Dec. 8th, 2018.

Each creation needs to show off our talents – something you'd like to have yourself!

Ideas:

Quilters gift bag or tote filled with material (30s, Civil War or other), notions, gift cards

Purses with special items and travel theme

Wine tote (filled)

Cooking or kitchen, place mats

Any theme that will spark interest!

Created by one person, or several, or even a bee!

Get your talents and creative juices going!!! Solicit restaurants for gift cards, quilts shops, etc.

The sky is the limit!

Compile a complete list of your special treasures as the contents in the surprise.

Questions? Ask or call Linda Haderer 956-425-4362

We will be collecting bags at the January meeting.

The surprises are guaranteed to produce happy winners and will benefit the Guild with the proceeds!

RETREAT

Just a quick reminder that the Friendship Star retreat should be paid in full by the time you receive this newsletter. If you did not pay, you may have lost your spot.

Bluebonnet friends, your retreat final payment is due by the January guild meeting, January 11, 2020.

Any questions or concerns, please contact me. I am in the directory.

Thank you, Carolyn Heaney

Quilt Show Reminders

If you are doing a quilt for the challenge, it must be entered in the quilt show.

SLEEVES: All entries must have an attached 4" sleeve (small wall hangings may have a 2" sleeve). Attach the hanging sleeve at the top of each item. If the item is longer than 88", please attach the top edge of the sleeve 88" from the bottom edge of quilt to keep the quilt from touching the floor when it is hung.
LABELS: All entries must have cloth labels on both the entry and the pillowcase (cloth bag). You will need two cloth labels at least 3" x 3" (larger is ok) with the entry number printed in bold permanent marker (e.g. Sharpie). The entry number will be emailed to you when the online registrations has been processed.

If you would like someone to come to your park or bee to enter quilts, let us know and we will try to work something out.

Marsha Santow, Quilt Show Chair

Quilt Show

Appraiser

Allison Rainboth will be appraising quilts at the 38th Annual Rio Grande Valley Quilt Show. Allison is an AQS Certified Quilt Appraiser of Quilted Textiles. You can register for an appraisal online at www.rgvqg. Go to the Quilt Show page, to find the Appraisal Registration form. There are still spaces available.

Boutique

We are still looking for more items made by Guild Members and donated to the Quilt Show for the Boutique. If each one of our 300+ members made just one item for the boutique, it would be a great year!

You can turn in items to Deb Warner at the January Guild Meeting. Please label items as to what they are and a suggested price.

Challenge

Remember your Challenge pieces must be registered for the Quilt Show and in the description please state the title of the book and the author your piece represents.

The Challenge pieces will be voted on by the Guild Members at the February meeting.

Totes, Bags & More

Linda Haderer and Diane Wolf are still looking for more items for the "Totes, Bags & More" booth at this year's Quilt Show. There are more details in their article later in this newsletter. Please, no glass containers.

You can bring items or completed bags to the January Guild Meeting. Last year there was quite a variety on Friday and again on Saturday.

This was a very successful booth raising money for the Guild at the Quilt Show last year.

Can we do even better this year?

Receiving & Returning Quilts

This year there will be two locations to drop-off and pick-up quilts, for the Quilt Show.

The first location for drop-off will be Trophy Gardens 800 FM 495 in Alamo, on Tuesday February 11th from 10am to 12 noon.

The second location for drop-off will be the First United Methodist Church 101 W. Adams St. in Port Isabel, on February 12th from 1pm to 3pm.

You will pick-up your quilts from the same location where you dropped them off. This will take place on Monday February 17th from 10am to 12 noon.

Registration of Quilts

You can register your projects online at www.rgvqg.com, from your computer, tablet or smartphone. Quilts may also be registered for the show at the monthly Guild Meetings. We had a great turn out to register quilts at the December Guild Meeting.

So bring them for Show-n-Share and then get them registered. Additionally, if your Bee would like to register quilts at one of their meetings, have the Bee Keeper contact Bonnie Hall to make arrangements.

Silent Auction

Judy Blum is accepting miniature quilts and small wall hangings (smaller than 144" when all sides are added).

These miniature quilts and small wall hangings will be donated to the guild, to be put up for silent auction at the quilt show.

Although first, they will be displayed at the February Guild Meeting. Guild members will vote on their favorite, and prizes are awarded for the three most popular ones ($100 for first, $75 for second and $50 for third).

Volunteers

We are once again looking to the Guild Membership to assist with the Quilt Show. It is only with your help that we are able to put on this annual quilt show.

Volunteering, for as little as 2 hours, will get you into the show for the day for FREE! You can sign up to volunteer at any of the Guild Meetings. Or online at www.rgvqg.com on the Quilt Show page, just look for the Volunteer Registration tab.

Show Quilts Pick up and Drop off -- Options - Yippee !

There will be new drop off/pick up options for the 2020 quilt show.

Upper Valley Drop off/Pick up point will be at Trophy Gardens, 800 TX-800, Alamo, TX (Meeting location)

Drop off February 11, 2020 9 am—11 am

Pick up February 17, 2020 2 pm—4 pm

Lower Valley Drop off/Pick up point will be at the First United Methodist Church Fellowship hall in Port Isabel. Address: 101 W. Adams, Port Isabel, TX

Drop off February 12, 2020 1 pm—3 pm

Pick up February 17, 2020 10 am —12 pm

There may be some adjustments to the time frames when Mike gets back and we can fine tune the logistics.

Opportunity Quilt

Hello ladies and gentlemen,

I am so happy we had several people turn in their tickets at the December meeting. I want to thank everyone who has participated so far and those that have sold extra.

We are well on our way to having almost half of the members return tickets.

Reminder if you know of any craft shows or other events where we can display the quilt at and sell tickets, please contact me so we can make plans to be there.

Please check the facebook page for volunteer opportunities to help sell the tickets at these events.

We will be at South Padre Island Market Days January 24th-26th. We still have several volunteer opportunities available.

There has been a change in the drawing for the gift certificates. Due to budget cuts there will be two $75.00 gift cards available for the drawing for returning your tickets and volunteering rather than the $150.00 last year. I'm sorry I had said it was $150.00 each and just wanted to make everyone aware that it was changed.

Thank you all for working so hard selling tickets,

Sarah Reed, Opportunityquilt@rgvqg.com, 936-933-6965

Professional Appraisal Services Available at Show!

How Much is Your Quilt Worth? You May Be Surprised!

People often think antique quilts are highly valuable, while something made recently is not worth much. The truth is not so simple. A newly made quilt is often worth substantially more than most people realize. If you suffered a disaster and lost your quilt, your insurance company would generally only provide the cost of fabric (if you can document it). With an appraisal, you would often receive full replacement value. Appraisals are also useful for donating items, for settlement of estates, and for shipping. You will also need one if you are planning to enter a quilt in a large show.

In addition to establishing value, a professional quilt appraiser can provide information you may not know about your quilt. This is particularly true for vintage or antique pieces. Appraisers can date your textiles and provide recommendations for future care.

Professional appraiser Allison Rainboth will be on hand at the show to offer appraisal services by appointment. She will be offering two kinds of services:

1. Verbal assessment, $25.00. Verbal assessments are very useful for older family pieces when you may not know the history or care requirements of your piece. Allison does not offer verbal assessments for contemporary pieces, and a verbal assessment does not include a fair market valuation. Use this assessment to find out about the mystery quilt left to you by your relative!

2. Written assessment, $50.00. This form of appraisal will involve the collection of specific data about your piece of any age. Allison will document the details of the quilt and will research the market to set values. The written appraisal will be mailed to you after the show. It is valid for submission to your insurance company to obtain coverage.

Please check the RGVQG show page to sign up and pay the fees. There is also a preliminary information form to complete to assist Allison to stay on schedule. If you are interested in an appraisal but are not comfortable signing up on line, I will provide an opportunity to sign up at the upcoming guild meetings or contact me (Laurie Magee) at 920-685-6470 or lamilb47@gmail.com

Growth Opportunity

This year we are offering the opportunity to have a certified quilt show judge give you a critique of your work. This is your chance to have your work looked at by someone who has extensive training. These pointers will help you improve your work and move to the next level as well as indicate the areas where you are already successful. If you have thought about entering a large judged show, they may require that you have been already in a judged show. This will be a low stress way to achieve this. The completed critique form is for your eyes only. The fee is $5 added to your registration and Allison will share half of the fee with the guild.

Allison Rainboth is a certified quilt judge as well as an appraiser.

Quilt Show Classes & Lectures

Classes

Renee Iannarelli will be sharing her love of color theory, design processes, surface design, and fine piecing she has learned over the last forty years of quilting

Friday February 14th - 8:30am – 11:30am - Expanded 4-Patch - Renee will teach you to transform 4 simple four-patch blocks into a modernized finished block focusing on lines, color and contrast. The created multiple expanded four patch blocks are set together to create an abstract/modern piece with ample space for hand or machine quilting.

Saturday February 15th - 8:30am – 11:30am – Rhythm - Traditional repeated blocks often offer little movement a sequence horizontally and vertically when placed together in a quilt. This class presents the opportunity to create small blocks that when placed together create movement across the surface. This movement is created through the incorporation of a striped strata into a simple 5-inch (or any size) block, and no two blocks need to be the exact same!

Each of these classes is only $30.00 and space is still available. You can sign-up on the website at rgvqg.com.

Lectures

Teresa Duryea Wong is a lifelong writer and communicator. She began her career as a journalist, and later published a fine art magazine. Teresa loves to travel, research, write, and bring quilt stories to life through her books and presentations.

Teresa will do two presentations one on Friday and one on Saturday, at 2:00 each day. The Lectures are included in your Quilt Show admission.

Friday February 14th - 2:00pm - “American Cotton: Farm to Quilt” Lecture

Saturday February 15th - 2:00pm - “Japanese Quilts” Lecture and Trunk Show

Bee News

Row Quilters enjoyed an early Christmas lunch with 16 members attending. Lots of great food, fellowship and show-n-tell also. We made candy bags for the children of the workers. Row Quilters meet at Alamo Country Club on Friday's from 9 am to 2 pm all year. Beginning in January, most of the group will be doing their version of the Gypsy Wife pattern, each choosing a different color combination. Look for these in the 2021 Quilt Show.

Honey Bees Quilting Group have been busy with charity projects and regular meetings. On Veteran's Day we presented 18 military service quilts to the veterans in the park that were present. Another ceremony will be held in January to complete the presentation for this year where we will give out another 26 quilts for a total of 44 this season. Submitted by Jane Ross
