President's Threads That Bind

by Kathe Letulle

To use a quote from John Lennon, "Life is what happens when you are making other plans." Never truer words. The annual business meeting on Saturday, November 13th, 2021, was a total change in "used to be normal" Our first Hybrid meeting - Zoom and in-house. For our attempt, things went rather well. Just to see so many members and guests at the meeting was a wonderful joy.

December will be Friendship Day and both Zoom and in-house will be the action of the day. I am so sorry that those on Zoom will not be able to participate in the Left, Right, Center game that will be played after the program. So if possible, sign up on the Guild website to attend the in-house December Meeting if you are in the Valley. Masks are optional, and many members wore masks at the November Meeting.

Your Guild need you help to volunteer in any capacity - Officer, Committee Chair, Quilt Show, etc. - to ensure continued success. Your newly elected board and Committee Chairs are beginning a new year and would appreciate any assistance because YOU are the backbone of the Guild. There is a need for Co-Chairs for Committees, so the Chair has someone to rely on when needed when life happens.

Please have safe travels back to the Valley and see you either in-house or on Zoom.

ALL Members - ALWAYS Check the website for any updates, access to Board and Meeting Minutes, and what is going on within the Guild during this time of getting back to what we feel will be a normal life. See you at the next Guild Meeting December 11th, at 9 AM Central Time In-house at Trophy Gardens and via Zoom.

We are all bound together by a common thread - quilting!

Blessings! Kathe - President@rgvqq.com

Schoolhouse Classes

by Debbie Williams

We have been able to secure space at Trophy Gardens for our Schoolhouse Classes. The November class was in-person only, but the December thru March classes will be both in-person and on Zoom. So even if you have not arrived in the Valley, you will have access to those classes. Don't miss out on the classes that you want...sign up for them on the RGVQG website.

Classes are open to all Guild members for a fee of $20. Non-members may attend by joining the Guild first. Classes will be held from 9:00am to 3:00pm on the first Friday of each month. A lunch break will be scheduled during this time. You may bring your lunch or go out to one of the restaurants nearby.

December:

Friday, December 3, 2021 - "Fabric Wrapped Corded Bowls"

Instructor: Judy Gillen

If you have ever wanted to learn how to make clothesline bowls with fabric scraps, this is your class. You will need to have a sewing machine with zig zag capability to create these delightful bowls. Judy will provide several examples with a variety of embellishments to make your bowls really special.

January:

Friday, January 7, 2022 - "Siddi Style Kawandi Table Runner"

Instructor: Pat Cooper

The Siddis are Indians of East African descent. Their quilts are distinctive in their use of color and the technique used in which patches of repurposed clothing are placed over a foundation and hand stitched with a running stitch. During this unique class, Pat will explain the process with lots of visuals that will help you create your own Siddi style Kawandi table runner.

February:

Friday, February 4, 2022 - "Four Patch Explosion "

Instructor: Marty Morrison

When is a Four Patch not your usual Four Patch? Marty will have samples to show, which will help you start your creative thinking. During this fun and creative class, you will learn how to cut and rearrange the pieces of your original Four Patch to create amazing blocks that look nothing like the original. The finished quilt looks much more complicated than what it is.

March:

Friday, March 4, 2022 - "Fun With Circles"

Instructor: Debi Warner

This class will review the role of circles in quilting history, show ways to sew curves, and helps each person create an art piece. Debi will explore the techniques used by Tom Russell to create these circle masterpieces and will provide several themes to consider.

Military Service Quilts

by Mellie Peach

The Military Service Quilt Committee has been active! Presentation of MSQs were made at many places on Veterans Day. 28 were prepared for Alamo Country Club, 5 for SandPiper Resort and 4 at Snow to Sun. There may have been others. We know the recipient Veterans appreciate the quilts and many have reported that they treasure them. Their humble acceptance of this small token of appreciation always tears at heartstrings.

You can pick up a quilt anytime at Lucy Klaas' home. Call Lucy at 708 227 4826 at Trophy Gardens in Alamo. Mellie Peach has a couple quilts at Snow to Sun as well.

Saving the RGVQG approximately $50 in shipping cost, en route to Texas from Illinois, Lucy Klaas stopped at Marshall Dry Goods in Batesville, Arkansas, and picked up 6 bolts of Backing Fabric to bundle/sandwich quilts this autumn and winter. She also picked up 3 bolts of patriotic fabric for the Military Sew Day scheduled for January 19, 2022, at Snow to Sun Resort (1701 N International Boulevard, Weslaco, TX) from 9-1:30. There will be a free lunch for all who come to participate in this work session provided by the Snow to Sun Resident Activities Association.

THANK YOU to Laurie Magee for the bin of fabric donated to the MSQ Committee to use at the Sew Day and for making or completing tops or backing.

THANK YOU to Candice Phillips, Val Forsyth's sister in Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada, who sent a completed Wheel Chair Quilt and a bag of Patriotic Fabric with Val for MSQ. We appreciate both of these donations.

At the November RGVQG Meeting, there were 12 quilt tops donated, 2 long-armed quilts released to be bound, 4 bundled or sandwiched (tops/batting/backing) to be long-armed, 2 completed quilts to be labeled and put in inventory.

We appreciate that many RGVQG members are donating tops they've sewn. We have a collection of star blocks that were sewn and donated after the Zoom Class last February. They'll be used in completing tops and making sure that the MSQ top is 60 X 72. A Wheel Chair Quilt is normally 36 X 42. Donations of completed quilts, tops, fabric, batting, backing, long-arm or machine quilting, binding, repairing, checks and or cash are always appreciated.

November Block Draw

by Chris Cowan

December's block will be a Disappearing 4 Patch in a Winter Blues theme. Fabric will be blue prints and light prints, leaning toward snowflakes and evergreens. Nothing obviously Christmas-y, so it can be enjoyed for a little longer than just at the holiday. Very general directions given here, but many more explicit ones are available online. These blocks start with 2 - 7 1/2" squares each of blue and light prints. These are generous measurements to allow for variations in sewing and the final block will be trimmed to 12 1/2" unfinished size, so 12" finished size in the quilted project. I made five to give some ideas as you look through your stash, very fat quarter friendly.

1. Make a 4 patch.
2. On a mat that's easy to rotate cut vertically 2-1/4" away from center seam, rotate mat and repeat step three times. You will end up with nine patch pieces.

3. Exchange left and right outer center pieces and then exchange top and bottom outer center pieces.
4. Sew pieces together as you would a 9 patch.
5. Trim block to 12-1/2"

There was a wonderful response to November's Disappearing nine patch. 58 blocks(!!) were submitted and it was decided to have two lucky winners! The two recipients of 29 blocks each were Bonnie Hall and Thelma Woods. Congratulations! Looking forward to seeing your projects in December.

Opportunity Quilt Unveiled

The 2022 Opportunity Quilt was unveiled at the November Guild meeting. "Ruby Whirlwind" is an 80"x80" quilt, made up of 64 pineapple blocks.

All the Reds in this quilt were donated by Guild Members, back in 2020. Guild Members also donated the other fabrics and batting. Cyndi Gonzalez of Quilting in High Cotton donated her time and services to quilt it. So, the only expense we had was the printing of the Opportunity Tickets.

Many Guild Members picked up their Opportunity Tickets at the November Guild meeting. We will have more Opportunity Tickets available at each Guild meeting until the Quilt Show in February. In the meantime if you need more tickets or would like to book the Opportunity Quilt to be at your park or event, send an email to quiltshow@rgvqg.com and we will get you set up.

Quilt Show Auction

by Debbie Williams

In the past, the Silent Auction has focused on miniature quilts that were donated by our talented members. For the 2022 Quilt Show, the Silent Auction will be offering for bid, goods and services, utilizing local businesses and our many talented local residents. Some of the ideas I've tossed around...Dinner & A Movie...spa day for you... perhaps one for your dog...quilting services...a stain glass, woodworking or craft lesson. The possibilities are endless!

 I need your help ***

As Silent Auction chairperson, I'm looking for members throughout the valley to assist me in reaching out into the various communities to secure items for the auction. I especially need help in the mid and upper valley communities...since I am in Brownsville. Please call / text me at 479-899-3072, or email me at debrichwill@gmail.com if you would like to join me. Thank you in advance...can't wait to work with you and get to know you better!

Fiber Arts Unlimited

by Pat Cooper

Fiber Arts Unlimited had a great time doing a wet felting workshop. We made small "pods" or bowls out of fleece and although we all followed the same method, as you can see, they turned out quite different. We used packing foam pieces as a "resist" (the piece in the center that keeps the fibers from sticking to itself), and made flat felted pieces which we then slit on one side, pulled out the resist and worked into a bowl shape.

Honey Bees

by Nancy Tatro

The Honey Bees Quilting Group from Fun N Sun RV park had a quiet summer, but with November, we're off to a great start. Twice a year we honor our own Veteran's here in the park by presenting them with a patriotic quilt. This Veteran's Day we handed out six quilts to thank our men and women who served in the military. It was so special to be able to do this "close up and in person" this year!

Our self-taught Friday classes are all set and look so intriguing and several really talented quilters are teaching some special interest classes on Tuesdays! Yep, if you can't find us, look in the sewing room!

RGVQG General Meeting Minutes

by Diana Wolf

November 13, 2021

The meeting was called to order at 9:30 am by President, Kathe Letulle.

Jean Waufle shared the Guild's plans for Friendship Day. Bring your friends, they get in free. It will be held on our normal meeting day at the normal time 9:00 am. Instead of a salad and dessert buffet, we will have a brief business meeting, play some games, have a demonstration by Kathe Letulle, and adjourn earlier than usual. For the game, you will need 5 width-of-fabric strips which are 2.5 inches wide (jelly roll strips) for the game.

This will make it possible for those who wish to go out for lunch with their friends can do so. There will be a mid-morning break for a beverage and a muffin. You and your guests will need to sign up online for Friendship Day so the Guild will know how many muffins to purchase.

Jean introduced Lori Dickman, our program speaker, who shared some parts of Speedy Solutions to Cut and Organize Your Scrap Stash, a book she published. She also showed pictures of some finishing techniques, some free motion quilting patterns and some work by some students. She also took questions from the audience. She offered a free pdf pet pillow pattern which is also on her website. She also has some free mystery quilt patterns there too.

Kathe reconvened

Kathe announced the Treasurer's report by Mike Hall will be in the newsletter.

Diana Wolf presented the Secretary's report. It was accepted as printed.

Joy Paugh, chair of the Nominating Committee presented the candidates for officers. At the last general meeting, Marsha Santow was nominated for President and Jan Rondeau was nominated for Third Vice President, Programs. There were no nominations from the floor at the last meeting. The candidate for Secretary had withdrawn her name. The unopposed candidates were elected by the one vote of the Secretary, as per Robert's Rules. Candidates will be sought for Secretary, and the election for that office will be held in December. Diana Wolf offered to help the incoming Secretary if they wished to have it.

The Bylaw amendment had been published in the newsletter a month prior. It read:

The following Standing Committees are authorized: Academic Scholarships, Beekeepers, Historian, Librarian, Military Service Quilts, Newsletter, Publicity, Quilt Show Chair (current year), Quilters Schoolhouse, Retreat and Webmaster.

Proposed change – addition is in bold:

The following Standing Committees are authorized to vote on Board matters: Academic Scholarships, Beekeepers, Historian, Librarian, Military Service Quilts, Newsletter, Publicity, Quilt Show Chair (current year), Quilters Schoolhouse, Retreat and Webmaster.

Karen Jacobson objected to the amendment as committee chairs were appointed and not elected or approved by the membership. The question was called and the results were seven opposed and ninety-five members in favor. The motion carried.

Laural Powell as chairman of the Quilt Show committee updated their plans. She would like the names of persons familiar with WordPress. Also, flyers and bookmarks were available for distribution throughout the Valley. Classes at the Quilt Show are open for registration and both are hand sewing small projects where you can learn several sewing techniques. Quilt registration is again online, but could be done the meeting today on other people's laptops. Volunteers for the Show are also asked to register to online, and are urgently needed. You can also call Laural with questions about being a volunteer at the Show.

The Silent Auction chaired by Debbie Williams, will be a bit different this year and include more items of goods and services. Deb Warner is chair for the Bargain Boutique. Donations of goods and services would be most welcome. Both are looking for volunteers to help with their respective booths. Mary Camp is chairing Totes and More. She also needs volunteers as well as bags, baskets and totes filled with themed items. All of these efforts raise funds to support the Guild.

The Opportunity Quilt, Ruby Whirlwind, was revealed. It is a beautiful pineapple quilt in many shades of red with exquisite quilting. Some members were able to pick up their envelope of tickets to sell for $20.00 and it was most appreciated. When the envelope of tickets are sold, you will receive the special Show pin for this year. Mounted photos of the quilt be made available soon and this will also help sell tickets. If you would like to have the Opportunity Quilt at your park, call Laural and it will be made available to your group. Persons purchasing the tickets also have a chance to win the 30" x 30" wall hanging in the same pattern. There is also a tote bag for the third person who wins. The Guild Facebook and web page will also have pictures of the quilt. Members donated fabric, backing, batting and the quilting efforts so there was no cost to the Guild this year.

Marsha Santow shared that the Harlingen Arts and Heritage Museum will have the Paducah winners every other year. This year, there will be quilts from a private collection in one room and the other room could have quilts from Guild members hung. There is room for about 12 quilts to hang. They could be past winners. They will be displayed during January and February, so don't offer quilts you plan to hang at South Padre Island at our own Quilt Show. She is hoping to hear from members who would like to display their quilts This is a good publicity opportunity for the Guild.

There were 58 squares of 12 inches each submitted to the Block of the Month so it was decided to do two draws. Winners were Bonnie Hall and Thelma Woods. Next month's blocks have a winter theme and more details will be in the newsletter.

The deadline for newspaper articles is this coming Monday at 6:00 pm. All the committee reports will be in the newsletter.

Online door prize winners were announced; Judy White, Beate Keith and Pat Sommerville. In person attendees ticket winners were able to pick up their door prizes.

Mike Hall announced he would welcome comments about the audio-visual presentation today.

Five guests were present during the Guild meeting. There were 4 new members, 22 renewals, and 21 prior members who joined today.

Several members presented quilts and items for Show and Tell; Donna Otto, Pat, Vicki Guerra, Kathy Dunning, Paula McCutchan, and others who did not announce their names.

The meeting was adjourned at 11:20 am.

Respectfully submitted, Diana Wolf, Secretary

Sponsor a Class of 2022 High School Senior - Quilt Gift

Our 3rd annual "Adopt a 2022 High School Senior from Foster Care" campaign is underway. We are asking for quilting sponsors across Texas. We want to honor and gift a hand-made twin-size quilt set (blanket and pillowcase) made for each CPS foster youth graduating this Class of 2022. This form will document who will be making it so we can have every senior accounted for.

For Texas, we have 622 seniors graduating. Due to privacy issues mandated by CPS, we do not know what county they live in, their names, their gender but DO KNOW they are graduating this school year. With that information, the quilts will need to be gender-neutral colors/designs.

Preferred dimensions for the handmade quilt are:

Twin Quilt: 10" drop on each size - 59" wide x 85" long - Include 10" tuck - 59" wide x 95" long

Pillowcase: Standard 20" wide x 26" long

The twin-size quilt sets need to be completed, signed, wrapped, and delivered by April 15, 2022. We will provide you BY EMAIL with the point of contact in your area and the address where you can drop them off or ship them locally.

The Rio Grande Valley is in region 11. Region 11 has 46 foster seniors graduating in 2022. You can sign-up for this project at Sponsor a Class of 2022 High School Senior - Quilt Gift
