

President's Threads That Bind

It's November already, I don't know where the year has gone. We need to be working on Christmas gifts. I have already gotten quite a few done. Next week I am going to a quilt retreat with Killer Bees, so I can work on some more. I also need to get a quilt done for the show. We had our election at today's meeting and Debbie Williams is 1st Vice President, Chris Cowan is 2nd Vice President and Treasurer is Mike Hall, congratulations to all. We do have 2 open jobs that need to be filled. We need someone to volunteer for Schoolhouse Chair and we need a Publicity Chair. Please think about volunteering and getting involved. We also do not have a quilt show chair for 2024, if you want a show think about it.

We have rescheduled the strategic planning session for January 18th from 1-4p.m. It will be with Dianna Harvill from the Chamber of Commerce on South Padre. It will be held at the Methodist Church in Port Isabel. This is open to all guild members and will help us grow the guild and bounce off new ideas for the future. Get together and carpool.

The presentation by Mary Mayfield was so interesting. It is amazing how much time and effort is put into the fabric from Tanzania. It should be so much more expensive than it was.

Well happy stitching!

Marsha Santow

If you are a new or returning Guild Member, be sure to look up the Guild Facebook Group, Rio Grande Valley Quilt Guild and request to join, if you haven't already.

This Group is a great way to stay connected with other Guild Members and up-to-date on Guild activities.

Also check out the Rio Grande Valley Quilt Show page, on Facebook, for ongoing updates on the Quilt Show.

NEW MEETING LOCATION !!!

The November 12, 2022, January 14, 2023, & February 4, 2023 meetings will be held in the Mayor Eugene A Braught Memorial Theatre, which is adjacent to the City of Weslaco Public Library, located at 525 South Kansas Avenue in Weslaco.

The Guild's Friendship Day meeting on December 10, 2022 & the Rummage Sale meeting on March 11, 2023, will be conducted in the gymnasium of the City of Mercedes Dome Recreation Center, located at 1202 N Vermont Ave.

The Weslaco Library is one block east of Texas Blvd & three blocks south of Business 83. The Dome is approximately three blocks north of the Interstate on Vermont in Mercedes.

Schoolhouse Classes

by Debbie Williams

Schoolhouse classes are scheduled for the first Saturday in December, January and March. In February the class is moved to the 3rd Saturday, to accommodate the Quilt Show. All classes will take place from 9am to 3pm, at Pharr South Activity Center. You may bring a lunch if you prefer to stay in and continue working on your project. There are also restaurants close if you want to take a break during lunch. The class fee for members is $20 per class. For non-members, the $30 membership fee will also be charged

On Saturday, December 3rd, Nancy Schmitz will be leading the Schoolhouse class for her Paper Pieced Table Runner. Nancy will be providing the foundation paper for the paper pieced blocks as well as all instructions needed for completing the runner.

The Supplies List on the website provides material needed for a 3 panel runner, but you can easily add more blocks if you prefer something longer. Nancy is encouraging attendees to consider using holiday colors....and you might even want to make several for gifts!

Seats are still available, but you won't want to wait too long to sign up for this class on the Guild web page.

On Saturday, January 7th, Paula McCutchen is going to be sharing her talents at making a Cork Wallet. She has adapted her wallet pattern to provide pockets large enough to hold credit cards. In the Supplies List, she allows various weights of cork fabric. Cork is available at Walmart and also from Kathe Letulle. For the lighter weight cork, Paula will provide an iron-on stabilizer. Seats are still available, but it is filling up quickly. Do not hesitate to sign up for this class.

On Saturday, February 18th, Jean Waufle will be leading a class on Wool Appliqué.

On Saturday, March 4th, Bonnie Hall will be teaching a Project Bag class. You can never have too many project bags!

Additional details for both classes will be posted to the Guild website in the next weeks.

Membership Information

by Marty Morrison

Membership renewal began on November 1 - this also means changes - with the new location for the meetings, we can only accept cash ($30) in a sealed envelope with your name, address, phone, e-mail address or you can still write a check. Of course, the effortless way is to renew on-line.

You can be a member of the Rio Grande Valley Quilt Guild from anywhere, as we are meeting via Zoom. You can invite your friends to join us, they can register to be a guest at the monthly meeting. Beginning November 1, the annual dues are $30.00. Just click on the link below:

Quilt Registration Glitch

There is a glitch with the quilt registration form. Sometimes the form has what looks like a payment error when there is no payment involved.

Please do the following:

- 1) Click the Save button (left of the Submit button)
- 2) Do NOT save, just close (X upper right corner) the popup
- 3) Click the Submit button.

You should get the Thank You notice

Ask Oggie

If you have a question about the Quilt Show you can send an email to Ask Oggie at quiltshow@rgvqg.com.

This month, Oggie got three questions about the 2023 Quilt Show.

Diane asked: Do we have to pick up our quilts at the same location we dropped them off at?

Answer: You can drop off quilts at the Pharr or Port Isabel location, but which ever location your quilts are dropped off at is where they will be returned to.

Mary asked: How can I get help registering my quilts?

Answer: We will have someone at the November Guild meeting, to help with online quilt registration.

Barbara asked: Where can I turn in some things I've made for the Boutique?

Answer: We will have someone at the Guild meetings, starting in November, to collect items for the Boutique, Totes & More and Silent Auction.

QUILT SHOW - SILENT AUCTION

by Debbie Williams

We will be doing the Silent Auction again for the 2023 Quilt Show on the island. Last year we were very successful auctioning off handmade items and relevant services. Best sellers from last year:

- * 4 rounds of golf
- * hand made quilt - throw size
- * cherry swing arm quilt rack
- * Poppins bag
- * landscape painting

I need your help. Please reach out to those you know that have talents that are willing to share. I'd love to have a stain glass piece, original artwork, wooden items, especially items that would be of interest to quilters. If you have an idea you'd like to discuss, please reach out to me. My contact information is 479-899-3072 or debrichwill@gmail.com.

NEW VOTING INFO

At the August meeting, the Quilt Show Board voted to have ballot voting at the quilt show end at the end of the day on Friday. This way the Ballots & Ribbons Committee can hang the ribbons before the quilt show opens on Saturday morning. So you will be able to vote for your favorites on Friday, then coming in on Saturday and see which quilts received ribbons. Additionally if one of your entries received a ribbon, you can have your picture taken with the quilt and ribbon while it is still hanging at the quilt show.

ATTENTION IMAGINATIONS !!!!!

Oggie has been out looking for ideas for the TOTES AND MORE booth at the Quilt Show in February!

Previous ideas are : A Chocolate Tote, A Holiday Tote, A Beach Tote, A Ladies or Man's Spa Day Tote, A Book Lovers Tote, A Dog or Cat Lovers Tote, A Coffee or Tea Tote and of course, A Quilters Tote!

These are but a few of the hundreds of ideas. This is one of our fundraisers for our Guild so put on your Thinking Cap and start creating.

There is no limit on how many you or your Bee can contribute. Please read the following suggestions when you are finished with your Tote.

Please, Please do not use this as a time to get rid of old stuff you don't use or outdated patterns, save them for the table sale at a later Guild meeting

Pack each tote for transport. A sealed cardboard box is a great way to pack them. Once we pick them up they are moved several times so this keeps them together and prevents breakage. If you include breakable items pack them securely.

Each Tote must have the Donor's name, address and phone number. If it's a Bee, please name a contact person. Also include an itemized list of the contents.

Alcohol is not allowed in the Convention Center.

Donna and I will pick up your wonderful Totes at the December and January Guild Meetings.

Can't wait to see what y'all come up with this year and it would be great to know what you plan to donate, even if you won't be finished with it until later.

Any questions or to let me know what you are planning, email me at:
marycamp1619@gmail.com

Thanks, Mary and Donna

Imagination Station

Imagination Station Guidelines

- An opportunity for all Bees to do a 15 minute demo both Friday and Saturday at the Quilt Show. This is an opportunity for those attending the quilt show to learn more about your Bee and also to make new friends within the Rio Grande Valley.
- Each Bee will have a table to display their Bee Banner, any information about their Bee and • If the Bee desires can SELL KITS (made for the item they demoed) for quilt show attendees to take home.
- YOUR BEE sets the amount they want to sell their kits and KEEPS THE MONEY for their Bee. • You can sell your kits at your table all day if you want, or just the hour you're scheduled to demo. THE CHOICE is yours! If you want you can leave your kits and put up an Honor system jar for the collected money that is ok. BUT the RGV Guild is NOT responsible for the money.
- Whatever your Bee decides they are responsible for collecting the money and manning their booth. And it is ok to just do a demo and not sell kits. This is the Bee's choice.
- Since this is a 15 minute demo and Bees keep the money for selling kits, you will be expected to pay to get into the quilt show.
- DEADLINE for Bees to register to participate is December 1 Demo times for each Bee will be announced by the 2nd week of December so there is plenty of time for scheduling.

Scrap Block Draw

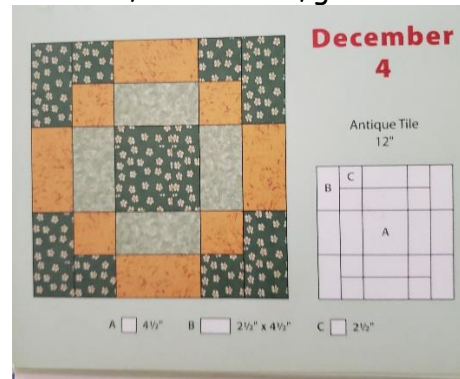

by Chris Cowan

Looking forward to the next meetings when I hope we will get many blocks to use in Military Service Quilts from the July - October patterns from the

Block a Day calendar:
Goose Creek, June 11th;
July 4th, July 4th;
Milky Way, July 19th;
Double Tic Tac Toe, June 8th

Antique Tile, December 4th in the Block a Day calendar, done in red, green and neutrals in Christmas and/or winter theme fabric will be due in January, not December, due to Friendship Day. We'll be back to drawing a winner of the blocks, so have fun! Jelly roll strips are great, red and green will take at least 28" and neutral 18".

RGVQG General Meeting

Minutes

RGVQG General Meeting

November 12, 2022

Our meeting was called to order by Marsha Santow at 9:02am.

Jan Rondeau introduced our speaker, Mary Mayfield. She works with Tanzanian children to provide scholarships for young students. She did a slide show of the area in Tanzania. She showed the girls dyeing their fabrics. She explained how they make their money to operate. She did a show and tell of her beautiful projects she has made and taught over the years. She was an awesome speaker.

Treasurer's report is placed on file for audit.

Secretary's report was filed as printed.

Marsha presented the candidates for offices up for voting. She asked for nominations from the floor for each position needed. There were none. We only had one volunteer for each office. The members present accepted each one as follows.

1st Vice President Debbie Williams

2nd Vice President Chris Cowan

Treasurer Mike Hall

Committee Reports:

Quilt Show - Paula McCutchan explained her Imagination Station. This idea was started by Debbie Warner. This will involve the Bees getting together and doing demos and selling kits to earn money from these projects. She passed out guidelines for this. Totes and More already have 8 totes donated....Debbie Williams gave an explanation of the Silent Auction. She is trying to do more Goods and Services as they seem to raise more money for the quilt show.

Lucy Klaas told us what she and her helpers have done for Military Service. They handed out 85 lap size and wheelchair quilts over the Veteran's Day weekend. She only has 5 left! Friday, the 25th of November will be bundling of quilts. Two military sew days have been scheduled in January. Snow to

Sun is having a sew day on January 18th and Trophy Gardens is having a sew day on January 20th.

The two Boutique ladies for the quilt show demonstrated items and explained what would be good items to sell and/or have sold well in the past.

Retreats. Kathe Letulle still has 3 openings in the Friendship Retreat. The Blue Bonnet Retreat is full.

Community Services, Chris Cowan said we have $5,771 value in donated items. Driscoll Children's Hospital said they are in need of baby quilts, Hats and other items.

Scrap Block Draw, Chris Cowan has picked Antique Tile on December 4th in the Block a Day Calendar for the next block. Due to Friendship Day in December, they will be due at the January meeting.

Quilt Registration, Bonnie Hall explained the work around for us to register our quilts on-line. WE NEED QUILTS REGISTERED!

Programs, Jan Rondeau let us know there are still openings in Mary Mayfield's class on Monday. December program is Friendship Day. January is Randi York on her journey to enter a national quilt competition.

Friendship Day, Josey McVey let us know some of the fun things we will be doing. She is asking for help setting up.

Membership, Marti Morrison said we have 54 members for 2023 and today we have 30 renewals and new members sign up.

Schoolhouse Classes, Debbie Williams showed examples of what was done in class. Marsha needs a new Schoolhouse Chair and a new Publicity Chair. Carrah Maney did the fat quarter draw.

Door Prizes were done by our new hostesses, Elaine Hall and Jean Waufle. Jean did a door prize drawing. We had 85 people present, 15 guests and 13 joined us on Zoom for a total of 113. Jean reminded us that the door prizes came as a donation from A Block Away Quilt Store.

Marsha Santow announced a Strategic Planning Committee at the Methodist church on Padre Island. It is open to all guild members. She will put the information in the newsletter.

Next was Show and Tell...

Marsha Santow said to remember that our Garage Sale will be in March.

Announcement - A new quilt shop is coming to the valley. More information will be available as they get ready to open. It will be located at 1617 N 11th St, McAllen.

The meeting was adjourned at 11:30.
